

MSAPAC

Missouri School Administrators Political Action Committee
3550 Amazonas Drive – Jefferson City, MO 65109-5716

September 15, 2010

Representative Ron Richard
1419 W 4th St
Joplin, MO 64801

Dear Representative Richard:

The Missouri School Administrators Political Action Committee (MSAPAC) is pleased to endorse your candidacy for the Missouri Senate (32nd District) in the 2010 general election. Enclosed is a copy of a press release for your use with local media.

MSAPAC is comprised of four major statewide school administrator associations. They are the Missouri Association of School Administrators, the Missouri Association of Elementary School Principals, the Missouri Association of Secondary School Principals and the Missouri Council of Career and Technical Administrators. Collectively, these four organizations represent more than 3,100 school administrators throughout the state. MSAPAC was founded in 1991 to provide school administrators with the opportunity to become more involved in the political process through endorsements and contributions to candidates who are strong public education supporters.

We appreciate your continuing support of public education and wish you success in the upcoming election.

Sincerely,

Kevin Dinsdale, Chairman

Sincerely,

Penney Rector, Coordinator

Encl.

September 15, 2010

For Immediate Release

Education Group Endorses Ron Richard for State Senate from the 32nd District

The Missouri School Administrators Political Action Committee (MSAPAC) has endorsed Ron Richard for the 2010 general election to the Missouri Senate from the 32nd district. MSAPAC made the endorsement due to his strong support of public education, according to Kevin Dinsdale, Chairman of MSAPAC and Director of the Career & Technology Center at State Fair Community College.

MSAPAC is comprised of four statewide school administrator organizations, including the Missouri Association of School Administrators, the Missouri Association of Elementary School Principals, the Missouri Association of Secondary School Principals and the Missouri Council of Career and Technical Administrators. The membership of these four organizations includes some 3,100 school administrators. MSAPAC was founded in 1991 to provide school administrators with the opportunity to become more involved in the political process through endorsements and contributions to candidates who are strong public education supporters.